

Intro: C, Am, F, G

C                    Am            F                    G
In the bleak midwinter, frost wind made moan,

C                    Am            F            G            C
Earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;

Dm                    Am                    C            F            G
Snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow on snow,

C                    Am            F            G
In the bleak midwinter, long ago.

C                    Am            F                    G
Our god, heaven cannot hold him, nor earth sustain;

C                    Am            F            G            C
Heaven and earth shall flee away when he comes to reign.

Dm                    Am            C            F            G
In the bleak midwinter a stable place sufficed

C                    Am            F            G
The lord God almighty, Jesus Christ.

C                    Am            F                    G
Angels and archangels may have gathered there,

C                    Am            F            G            C
Cherubim and seraphim thronged the air;

Dm                    Am            C            F            G
But his mother only, in her maiden bliss,

C                    Am            F            G            C
Worshipped the beloved with a kiss.

C                    Am            F            G
What can I give him, poor as I am?

C                    Am            F            G            C
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;

Dm                    Am            C            F            G
If I were a wise man, I would do my part;

C                    Am            F            G            C
Yet what I can I give him: give my heart.
